New Provider Training Scheduled in February 2018

New providers are invited to attend the New Provider Orientation virtual workshop, which is offered each month and is open to all provider types. This workshop includes a high level overview of the Nevada Medicaid Program, website navigation including locating billing information, forms and other helpful resources, getting started on the Electronic Verification System (EVS) and the benefits of using Electronic Billing (the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) program).

Please visit the 2018 Provider Training Registration Website to register for one of the following workshop sessions.

Workshop	Day	Date	Time*
