

April 26, 2013

Announcement 591

Avastin® Notification

Physician-administered drug claims for partial quantities of Avastin® (bevacizumab) are allowed and are reimbursed at a minimum of $75. This change, which was effective September 29, 2012, reimburses ophthalmologist practices appropriately for administering this medication for the treatment of macular degeneration or other ophthalmic indications.